

Biography

Dr. Felicia
Berry - Mitchell

Speaker. Author. Psychologist. Entrepreneur

Felicia Berry-Mitchell, PhD, MAC is a licensed psychologist, author, speaker, and entrepreneur. As the President and Clinical Director of Providence Residential & Outpatient PTSD Services, LLC dba PROPS, Dr. Berry-Mitchell is revolutionizing trauma. Her treatment provides a concierge wholistic program where trauma survivors focus on their recovery for more than 30 days, allowing them to heal and flourish. She has a passion to help those who have experienced trauma to heal and live boldly authentic lives, as well as to reduce mental health stigma.

Dr. Berry-Mitchell is the author of, "Building Courage and Resilience After Trauma", a book that combines her personal and clinical experience with trauma. She speaks on a variety of mental health topics and on issues affecting entrepreneurs.

Prior to founding PROPS, Dr. Berry-Mitchell worked for the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) where she received training and certifications in two of the three trauma treatments deemed most effective by the National Center for PTSD

Dr. Berry-Mitchell has a PhD in Counseling Psychology from Georgia State University. She is inspired by a strong family history of military and civil service.

A resident of Douglasville, Dr. Berry-Mitchell is married and has three children. She is a foodie . who enjoys traveling, attending concerts and music festivals, watching HGTV, and spending time with family and friends.

For speaking engagements, public relations,
or other inquiries, email:
manager@feliciaberrymitchell.com

For more information, visit:
www.DrFeliciaBerryMitchell.com